Annotated Bibliography Rubric: 9:00am class

5 Precis (5 points):
- listing author, date, and title
- transition words (asserts, argues, supports assertion)
- purpose and intended audience

5 Relating the articles effectively (5 points) and including at least one quote to support its relevance to the topic or at least one other article

5 Introduction (5 points) is well developed that ties articles to topic. Introduction should group sources into categories

3 Overall (5 points):
- grammar and punctuation - citations
- framing
- flow (your points are clear) - formatting correct for discipline

Brian,

You make excellent connections between your sources, and your discussion is strong throughout. There are a few minor citation and formatting issues, but your discussion is clear and well-supported.

18/20